I'm a London based sound recordist with over 25 years experience, I've worked in more than 60 countries in every conceivable environment from the Arctic to the Sahara. I've been fortunate to work with top production companies such as Studio Lambert, October Films and Youngest Media, and for broadcasters such as Amazon, Discovery, Nat Geo, Channel 4 and the BBC.

Every job is different, every day brings new challenges and I look forward to meeting those challenges with energy and enthusiasm.
